YELLOW TAIL WINS THE HANDI-CAP AT BENNINGS.

Interlude Carries Off the Race for Malden Two-Year-Olds-Eloim, Knight of the Garter, Tugal Bey and Cherubim Captare Other Events on Heavy Track.

WASHINGTON, April 10.-Another large crowd attended the races at Bennings to-day. The weather was fine for the sport, but the The noted California horse handicap at five and a half furlongs. hirteen selling platers faced the starter for the second event, at five furlongs. Eloim was the favorite at 8 to 5, with Zirl and Midnight Chimes also in demand. The start was excellent and Eloim quickly made the running. In the stretch he showed a tendency to stop, but Odom got after him with the lash and the old horse rallied, winning in a drive by three lengths. Zirl, Midnight Chimes and Lady Radnor followed necks apart as by three lengths. Zirl, Midnight Chimes and Lady Radnor followed necks apart as named.

Still another favorite landed the third race, at six furlongs, when O. L. Richards's Tugai Bey, at a to 10, ran away from his field in the stretch and, eased up, won by six lengths from Glennevis, who beat Merriment a length. B. F. Clyde, owner of the loughacres Stable, came down from Philadelphia to see his colt Interlude win the fourth race, for maiden two-year-olds at half a mile. He was greatly pleased with the youngster's showing, for Interlude, by Atheling—Octavia, an odds-on favorite, made all the running, and, in spite of a swerve in the stretch, won by a length before R. W. Walden's Albert colt Bruceville, a 10 to 1 shot.

Alexander Shields's Cherubim, 1 to 3, captured the fifth race, for maiden three-year-olds at seven furlongs, beating Loravale by three lengths. This was the fifth successful favorite of the day, but the layers got some relief in the last event, for platers at a mile and fifty yards, when Black Dick, a hot favorite, finished last. Knight of the larter, second choice at twos, rushed to the front early in the race and won easily by three lengths, Carroll D. having no trouble in taking the place from Imperious. Haack carried off the riding honors with two winners.

TO TRY FOR SEAWANHAKA CUP. Four Boats Being Built for Trials-Amerleans to Cruise Abroad.

Four boats are being built to take part in the trials which the Manchester Yacht Club will hold to select a challenger for the Sea-Wanhaka Challenge cup for small boats, now held by the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club. held by the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club. Three of these boats have been designed by Burgess and Packard. The first of this trio has been built by the Higginson-Boardman syndicate and is finished. The second boat is for Starling Burgess, and the third is for Frederick Tudor of Boston. W. W. Meek of North Weymouth has an order for a fourth boat for this class, which is for F. A. Peacock of this city. The Canadians are busy making preparations for the coming races. Several of the old boats will be out in the trial races to select the defender, and among these will be the Trident, last year's boat. Some new boats have been built and it is understood that they all have the keboards which were peculiar to the model of the Trident.

new boats have been built and it is understood that they all have the leeboards which were peculiar to the model of the Trident.

Two American-built yachts are to cross the Atlantic shortly and will cruise in European waters this summer. Ex-Commodore A. S. Bigelow of the Eastern Yacht Club will send his steamer Pantooset across early next month and will join the yacht at Cuxhaven. The Pantooset will then cruise through the Riel Canal and along the coasts of Norway, after which she will make a trip to St. Petersburg. She will be back here in September. The other yacht is the Aztec, which was purchased last season by Albert C. Burrage, also of Boston. This yacht will cruise in the Mediterranean.

The races for the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club's Challenge cup for 39-footers will be sailed on June 29 and 39 and July 1 on the Sound off Port Washington. The Indian Harbor Yacht Club has challenged for the cup, naming H. L. Maxwell's Olseau. The match is to be managed by a committee of three judges. Each club is to select one and these two are to select the third. The judges are not to be members of either of the intrested clubs. The courses will alternate windward or leeward and triangular. The windward or leeward and triangular. The windward or leeward and triangular course eighteen miles in length. It is expected that other clubs will challenge before the end of this month and that at least four yachts will compete for the cup. The winner is to be the yacht that scores the most points in the series. Each yacht is credited with a point for each yacht is defeats and one additional point for a start, if it finishes the race. The starting point will be from the black and red buoy to the northward and eastward of Execution Light.

Park Club Whist Team Again Wins.

Park Club Whist Team Again Wins. PLAINFIELD, N. J., April 10 .- The veteran

whist four from the Park Club won its sixth consecutive victory for the Metropolitan challenge trophy last evening when the Jersey City Whist Club challengers were defeated by a score of 8 to 5. The match throughout by a score of 8 to 5. The match throughout was exceedingly close, the Parks taking the first and second rounds, s to 2 and 3 to 1. The teams broke even on the third round, each scoring 2 points. This victory places the Parks well among the leaders for the trophy. It is the desire of the Jersey teams that the trophy remain in this State and a strong effort will be made to keep it here. The Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club is the next challenger, and the match will be played at the Park Club on Thursday evening. April 16. The Park Club was represented last evening by its original four, Samuel Townsend, captain; S. St. John McCutchen, George T. Rogers, and Joseph H. Howell. The challenging team consisted of Daniel Bowly, captain; O. S. McCabe, H. L. Scott and J. Howard Bumsted, Jr.

Martin Canole Whips Marty McCue Marty McCue, the local featherweight, made a strenuous effort to retrieve himself at Fall River on Thursday night, but failed.

McCue had for an opponent Martin Canole of Fall River and the bout was limited to ten rounds. In the early part of the mill McCue rounds. In the early part of the mill McCue went around his rival with a vim, landing at every turn. However, his blows failed to make an impression, and the more McCue rushed the weaker he became. In the sixth round McCue was in a bad way. A couple of hard swings nearly put him out. In the seventh he did well, but in the eighth he was "all in," so to speak. In the ninth McCue toed the mark very tired. He dropped to the floor repeatedly to avoid punishment and the referee cautioned him. Finally the referee's patience was exhausted and he stopped the mill, rendering his decision in favor of Canole. McCue was not much hurt.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—August Belmont has no intention of selling out all his two-year-olds that he has at Bennings, although it was so stated yesterday. Only four will be sold, and they are Hoofbeat, Eclectic, Windstein nds. According to presen after this meeting ends. According to present plans the track will be overhauled and a new dressing put on, while the infield will be torn up and a new steeplechase course laid. The infield has been in poor shape and this is thought to have been the cause of so many spills in the steeplechases. It is also said that the grand stand may be enlarged.

It was reported to-day that Sol Lichtenstein, the well-known layer of odds, had tried to purchase the two-year-old Peter Paul from "Pa" Bradley, who refused to sell. Bradley is said to have told Lichtenstein he would win the American Derby next year with Peter Paul. Paul.

Johnny Reiff to Try for Western License. CHICAGO, April 10 .- Johnny Reiff, the diminutive jockey, who has been riding in foreign countries and who got into trouble on the countries and who got into trouble on the French turf, reached here yesterday from San Francisco and will probably remain for some time.

It is said Reiff and his advisers have abandoned all hope of being able to get back on the French or Frielish turf and that a strong effort will be made among the stewards of the Western Jockey Club to secure a license for the boy, so that he can ride in and about the tracks of Chicago during the coming season. Reiff is in good condition at the present time and would need little preparation to take his first mount.

Horses Arriving at Aqueduct.

Horses are arriving at the Aqueduct track in large numbers. George E. Smith's stable of ten, including Chilton, Stevedore, Past and others all fit and ready to race, got there and others all fit and ready to race, got there yesterday. W. Oliver's stable got in from Washington, including the Carter Handicap candidate, Lord Badge, and All Gold, Alado and Hazlewood. J. Robertson came on from Bennings with Syrlin, another Carter candidate, and McWilliams of the same stable. E. Midgley arrived with Athlana, Goldsby and others. The track is in good shape and everything is in readiness for the opening next Wednesday.

Blood Horses Going to England. Among the blood horses which sail on the Atlantic Transport liner Minneapolis for London to-day are five polo ponies consigned to Lawrence McCreery, the well-known American polo player, a carriage horse con-signed to A. D. Loney, a prominent New York turfman now in England, and a mag-nificent harness horse which goes to the Hon. Evelyn Fitz-Gerald of London.

BAD INNING BY COLUMBIA GIVES THE NEW YORKS SEVEN RUNS.

Game Well Played in Other Innings, Pro fessionals Winning by Score of 11 to 1

—Merces Steals Home From Third

—Three Hits Off the New York Pitchers

One inning of poor work by the Columbia One inning of poor work by the Columbia University team in its game with the New York Nationals at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon was more than enough to offset their good playing in the other innings. This is often the case in baseball, but yesterday the backsilding was more costly than is usually the case. At no time could the Columbia men do anything with the New York pitching string, but they kept the New York score down in the other innings. In the feverish fourth the New Yorks made seven runs and the final score was 11 to 1 in their favor.

Columbia put in Grant, a left handed pitcher, in the fourth. He did not last the inning out, but held the centre of the diamond long enough to do much damage. He was very wild, and his inefficiency spread to his sup-port. Three bad errors were made in the wild, and his inefficiency spread to his support. Three bad errors were made in the inning. Tyler came to the rescue in the box, and things worked much more smoothly for Columbia under his twirling. Gearin, who pitched the first three innings for the students, was their most effective boxer.

The New Yorks showed a little more batting strength than they did against Fordham on the previous day. McTraw is evidently laying stress on team batting, and bunts and sacrifices were part of the professionals stick work. Columbia, too, went in for bunting, and gave promise of ability in that line. The New Yorks kept moving on the bases. Twice there was bad base running, and two New Yorks were caught at the plate. But the good base running was more noticeable. Mertes and Babb worked a fine double steal in the sixth inning, Mertes dashing home from third and Babb speeding from second to third.

Columbia's single run, made in the eighth inning, was due to Tyler's two-bagger to right, which Browne should have caught. Weekes's out at first and Taber's infield hit. Warner and Bresnahan had strong arms and clear eves in throwing to second, and headed off all base stealers. The fielding of thoodman and Joice was clean and fast. Taylor pitched five innings for the New Yorks and let the opposition down with one hit, a solid smash past short by Goodman.

Work on American League Grounds. Many baseball enthusiasts visited the New York American League grounds yesterday and watched with close interest the army of men at work on the new field on Washington Heights. This is the case on every good day, and it is apparent that the advent of Griffiths's and it is apparent that the advent of Griffiths's strong troupe and the championship season are eagerly awaited. Former Mayor Van Wyck, John F. Carroll, Ed Carroll and former Fire Chief Croker were among those who visited the grounds yesterday. The flooring for the grand stand was being laid yesterday, as the low stone wall which runs along the front part of the grand stand was nearly completed. There was a big boulder which interfered somewhat with the building of the stone wall, but the blasts shattered this obstruction yesterday. The blasting in that part of the field where the diamond will be about completed. On Monday next the work of levelling and smoothing off the infield will begin. Some of the workmen yesterday were chopping down trees. The trees are aged, but tough and hardy, and it takes muscle, time and sharp axes to dispose of them. Work on the main entrance and the runways will be begun to-day.

STIR OYER AUTO CUP RACE.

CONTESTANTS HUNTING FOR COMMITTEE'S PLANS.

ticulars of the Mooer's Racer—Hark-ness Car Has a New Axie—Idea That Trials Will Be Held in Private.

About the centres where automobilists citement filled the air. Every one was wearing a wise look and amused smiles and was ing a wise look and amused smiles and was asking questions, but no one confessed to knowing anything. As one man put it: "It's mystery, fast and furious." Reporters and photographers were running about or lying in wait at what they believed to be vantage points to learn something about the American cars enlisted for the great international cup race and the plans of the committee for testing them.

the team, was hustling for information as bard as any one. He wanted to know what hard as any one. He wanted to know what the committee is going to do about trying out the candidates. He said he had been to every member of the race committee of the Automobile Club of America and had failed to learn anything. Secretary Butler of the club was uncommunicative, although he was very busy. He was running about town in the forenoon, and one place he visited was the New York branch, where the Moorer racer New York branch, where the Mooers racer is expected to arrive. C. G. Wridgway, manager of the branch, was the most communicative man found. While he would say nothing about his interview with Secretary Butler he said that Mr. Mooers and his car are due here to-day, and he volunteered the information that the racer has four cylinders information that the racer has four cylinders of steel with cast explosion chambers and sliding gears. Roller bearings are used in every part possible and the engine and flywheel weigh 700 pounds. The complete car weighs a little under 2,200 pounds. Both a magneto and a battery are used for sparking. The wheels are 31 inches in diameter, with four-inch tires on the front and 45-inch tires on the rear. The wheel base is 100 inches. The horse power is about 70, he says, but more can be developed. The seat is in the centre of the body of the car, which has a "honey-comb" radiator in front and at present has no hood over the engine.

car, which has a "honey-comb" radiator in front and at present has no hood over the engine.

Mr. Harkness, who had to have a new axle put in his racer, said that it is all ready and waiting in Brooklyn. He had it out on the Coney Island Boulevard on Thursday, and when he was running on second speed, as slow as he could, a policeman warned him that he was speeding. He was trying to find out yesterday whether he must bring his car to Manhattan to-day for the committee to see. If he must, he will tow it over.

Concerning the Winton cars, one entered by Alexander Winton and the other by Percy Owen, nothing could be learned, as Mr. Owen was out of town. He went to Claveland, where the Winton factory is, on Thursday, presumably to bring his racer on hers. Mr. Winton's car was accepted out of hand, unseen, by the committee when he made his entry, and will not be brought to New York, but Mr. Owen's car must compete with the others for the two vacant places on the team.

No action by the committee on the two Matheson cars which are not quite ready has been announced, and through all the mysterious bustle of yesterday the belief grew that even after the committeemen and the contestants meet to-day little will be given out—that the elimination contests, wherever and whenever held, will be strictly in private without any notice to the press or any one except those participating.

Calling a meeting for 10:30 o'clock on the morning of Good Friday resulted poorly for the new organization of automobile dealers the new organization of automobile dealers being formed under the name of the New York Automobile Trade Association. Representatives of seven places were on hand and copies of the proposed constitution and by-laws were handed out. John F. Plummer, Ir., presided; but it was decided to take no action, because of the poor attendance, and the meeting was adjourned until next Thursday night at the same place, 1713 Broadway.

Judging Finished at Atlantic City Dog

Show. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 10.—The judges concluded their labors to-day at the Dog Show on Young's Pier and the pens are placarded with the various awards. Senator Thomas C. Platt visited the show this afternoon. The promenades were well filled with fashionables all day and to-night the hall was crowded. Dr. C. A. Leugest, Boston, had no competitor in the bloodhound class (dogs) and carried every prize. The same can be said of the mastiffs. Edward L. Kraus, be said of the mastiffs. Edward L. Kraus, Slatington, Pa., won all but three awards in the class for Russian wolf hounds. Miss Frances Hadden, Hempstead, L. I., with Olgs, won a third prize in the latter class, and Mrs. E. B. Chase, Burmont, Pa., won a third with Paul Petoff.

The deerhound prizes were won by Beauveau Borie, Jr., Philadelphia, and Mrs. Henry Spencer Spackman, Ardmore, Pa., B. F. Lewis and Miss Anna B. Lewis, Lansdowne, Pa., and J. M. Niskey, Atlantic City, captured the ribbons in the greyhound class. John Sinnott, Philadelphia, and the Red Brook Kennels, Great Neck, L. I., won all the prizes for poodles. Philadelphians captured all but one award for chow chows. Howard Snelling, South Lincoln, Mass., was the only entry in the Basset hound class, and took the prize with Marquise. Dr. C. G. Motschenbacher, New York, won several prizes with his dachshund.

Ben Jordan and Will Curley Matched. According to the London Sporting Life, Ben Jordan has signed articles to meet Will Curley of Newcastle-on-the-Tyne, before the National Sporting Club, London, the latter part of this month. No date has as yet been chosen. This will be done next week, when the final installment of the $2,000 side bet will be put up. The mill is at 124 pounds, weigh in at 2 o'clock on the day of the mill and the purse offered is $1,500. Curiey is looked upon as Jordan's nearest rival. He has whipped Jack Roberts, one of the best 126-pounders in England and has gained verdicts over other well-known has gained verdicts over other well-known English purilists. He also fought George Dixon in this country and is very clever. Jordan is very anxious to win this fight, as it will give him a chance to meet Young Corbet. Matchmaker Bellinson of the foreign club says that be will give a good purse to the winner of the fight to tackle Corbett in England either on Derby night or next fall. Both Jordan and Curley have plenty of followers who will back the men heavily. National Athletic Championships at Milwaukee, Sept. 9 and 10. waukee, Sept. 9 and 10.

Walter H. Leginger, president of the A.

A. U., has announced that the national championships this year will be held at Milwaukee on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 9 and 10.

A report from Milwaukee says that the events will be held in connection with a State Fair scheduled for the same place and dates; that is, if the Badger State authorities are willing, it is said that there is some opposition to any diversion of the State of Wisconsin's funds for athletic purposes; but it is more than probable that an amicable arrangement will be reached.

Jack O'Brien and Marvin Hart to Box. A six-round bout between Marvin Hart of A six-round bout between Marvin Hart of Louisville and Jack O'Brien was arranged yesterday. The battle is to be decided at philadelphia on April 23 and will be at catch weights. Much interest is taken in the contest owing to the reputation of the men. They fought last year and Hart almost received the verdict with a knockout in the fifth round. Since then Hart has been striving to get a return mill, but without avail. The "go" is for a division of the gate receipts. If Hart wins he will leave immediately for England, where a number of matches have been promised to him with men in his division.

SHAPE-RETAINING

EASTER SHOES.

Wrinkles are the bane of " Patent leathers" and fatal to their dressy appearance. Wrinkles are due to slack leather across forepart of foot - a result of imperfect lasting. Patent leather breaks where it wrinkles, and the best of it is uncertain enough when all the risks are reduced. The shoe shown above is shaped so as to keep the Patent leather " upper " constantly taut, and unwrinkled as possible. This is a feature you won't find in the ordinary Dress Shoe, though vitally important. Regals are made from the finest Patent leather in the world-Heyls, of Worms, Germany, and that they have genuine Oak leather soles, is proved before purchase. Better dress shoes than the 36 new Regal styles for Easter, on view in 51 Regal stores at $3.50, cannot be bought for $10.00. The shape shown above, in multiview, is an "Barl" Outer, which is made in Valvic Ventilating Calfabin, and King Calf, alwell as imported Patent and Enamel Calf. Style-book on Post care request.

SHARKEY WILL NOT FIGHT. He Calls Off His Match With Jack Munroe -No Club Money Up.

There will be no fight between Jack Munroe, the Anaconda minerand Tom Sharkey, at least, as far as Butte, Mon., is concerned.

the Anaconda minerand form Sharkey, at least, as far as Butte, Mon., is concerned. After waiting several weeks to hear from the officials of the Broadway A. C., Butte, regarding the mill, Sharkey withdrew his forfeit of $2,500 yesterday and said that he was through. The Butte club offered to give a purse of $10,000 and hold the combat on July 4.

Last week the club sent word to Clark Ball, Munroe's manager, that a representative of the Broadway A. C. was on the way East and that he would get here yesterday. It was also said that the westerner had a forfeit of $5,000 which the pugilists demanded, and that he would post this amount as soon as he arrived. Both Sharkey and Ball waited patiently for the Montana man, but he failed to materialize. Sharkey was so disgusted that he called everything off. Ball is equally disappointed and will take down his forfeit to-day. Sharkey said to The Sun reporter last night that he was willing to box Munroe for six rounds at Philadelphia, or for fitteen or twenty rounds at Boston if a club there will offer a purse.
